

1) Shared your ideas about problems in Kladno (you were supposed to write an eighty-word essay about one of the problems) – we will allow plenty of time for discussion.

2) 2nd Conditional: What would you do if you were the mayor of Kladno?

Example:

If I were the mayor of Kladno, I would build a brand new school building with a swimming pool, large classrooms, and enough rooms for the teachers – they would be nicer to us if they could work in a quiet place!

Write one idea of your own.

If I, I

Make more 2nd conditional sentences –

use past simple after „IF“ and use would+infinitive in the main clause.

If people used electric cars, there would be less pollution in our town.

(Kdyby lidé používali..... bylo by méně znečištění.....)

The order of the clauses in a conditional sentence doesn't matter:

Cycling would be nicer and safer if there weren't so many cars.

HW: finish this:

1. If there(be) more cycle lanes, more people(cycle) to work.
2. If I(know) Japanese, I(can) read this Tokyo tube map.
3. If I(live) near the city center, I(not have to) commute to school.
4. If somebody(build) a fountain in my town, vandals(throw) litter in it.
5. If I(be) a policeman, I(fine) people who litter.
6. If there(be) more roundabouts, traffic(be) smoother.
7. If people(can) work from home more often, they(save) on fuel.
8. If every school(have) online lessons once a week, the rush hour(not be) as bad.
9. There(be) fewer traffic jams if more people(go) to Prague by train.
10. There(be) more tourists if there(be) a proper castle in Kladno.
11. The building(look) better if there(not be) scaffolding all over it.
12. The outskirts(look) nicer if there(not be) so many factories and warehouses.
13. The pedestrian zone in the city center(be) livelier if there(be) more nice shops and cafés.
14. I(feel) safer if I(not have to) walk across the bridge.
15. If I(can) choose what statue to build in Kladno, I(vote) for a statue of(write your own idea: Jaromír Jágr? Václav Havel? The Little Mole? Yourself?)

- 1 The opposite of the city center: / (2 different words)
