Match the sentence beginnings with the QUESTION TAGS.

We are a rather silent group of students,

are we?

We aren't very talkative,

mustn't she?

We don't say a lot,

weren't we?

The teacher must be a bit frustrated,

did we?

But it's her fault,

aren't we?

Maybe we were just too tired last week,

didn't we?

Some of us say more than the others,

do we?

We didn't speak about public transport last week,

don't they?

We wrote a little test in the last lesson,

won't we?

We will finish unit 10 soon,

isn't it?

Are the QUESTION TAGS really questions?

a) No, they aren't.

b) Yes, they are.

c) Sometimes they are and sometimes they aren't, depending on the intonation.

Work out the grammar rule – circle the correct words in italics:

In question tags, we use the auxiliary verb / the main verb from the first part of the sentence.

If the verb in the first part of the sentence is affirmative (= “positive“), the verb in the question tag is affirmative /negative and vice versa.
