

C1 hodina 5 2026 0) Checked hw – unfinished exercises in Expert WB p.74 (exercise 3, 4 – cleft clauses)

1) Checked hw Expert WB Unit 6 Communication: : p. 61 – your list of 10 expressions – compare it with your partner; 3 sentences of your own.

2) Expert WB 62 – multiple-choice cloze – The benefits of bilingualism

3) Expert WB 63 – Spelling rules, words that are easily confused, hyphens.

Extra practice:

Many compound adjectives include a participle adjective. (well-behaved, ready-made, money-making)

Combine the following words to make compound adjectives. Write them with a hyphen.

longest	growing
tree	based
made	up
fast	lined
London	serving

Use them in the following sentences:

India's economic boom is generating market at home.

Did it really happen, or was it a story?

The writer is also famous overseas.

The public square was, with benches in the shade.

The employee of the company was awarded for his loyalty.

Do the same with the following:

Paris	keeping
brick	born
peace	reaching
long	built
far	lasting

The chimney didn't look very stable.

The fashion model moved to Milan when she was only 14.

..... efforts have repeatedly failed, and the civil war is still raging.

These budget cuts are bound to have consequences for public health.

The pandemic had effects on the way we work, socialise or travel.

wide-ranging eye-catching nerve-wracking well-resourced clean-shaven

Giving a presentation to 200 people was a _____ experience, but I was relieved when it was finally over. The school is extremely _____, with modern classrooms, a large library and plenty of specialist equipment. He usually has a beard, but he arrived at the interview looking completely _____. The report provides a _____ analysis of the causes of the problem, covering everything from economic factors to social changes. The shop window was decorated with bright, _____ displays designed to attract passers-by.

4) HW Expert WB 64- Open Cloze – The first emailer, 66 67 – The Sixth Sense, 68 vocab.