

Checked HW – revision of 30 31, presentations (Hidden Army: Clay Soldiers of Ancient China) SB 32

1) Unit 3 – SB 33 – song, grammar – verbs followed by infinitives

Pokud máme v angličtině dvě slovesa za sebou, např chci spát – *I want to sleep, přestalo pršet – *It stopped raining, musíme si dávat pozor, v jakém tvaru je druhé sloveso v pořadí – jestli v infinitivu nebo – ing tvaru (gerund).

Nelze to logicky odvodit, musíme si pamatovat seznamy sloves.

V této lekci jsou zatím pouze slovesa následovaná infinitivem, až v následujícím unitu budou slovesa následovaná -ing tvarem.

2) HW WB 23 24 25 26

3) Možná: ODLOŽENO Z MINULE: : TOO/ENOUGH (Murphy U 90, 91) – uděláme kousek společně, případně označené části budou za úkol:

- - - vocabulary revision.

PURPOSE PERSUADE COFFIN VARNISH CUSTOM CAN'T WAIT

1. Eating carp soup is a Czech Christmas, but some people don't like fish.
2. The marble was very heavy and it took the archeologists and their helper ages to lift it from the grave. What they found inside shocked them – not one skeleton, but two of them!
3. What's theof your visit? - I am an archeology student, I have a student visa.
4. The uniforms of the clay soldiers were covered in coloured
5. The man in the street tried to us to buy a souvenir from him, but we politely refused.
6. The archeologists are so impatient – what's in the marble coffin?

The archeologistssee what's in the marble coffin.

vocabulary - unit 3 – these are all words from SB page 28.

1. You can make pots or bowls from this material.
2. This person does hard work in the field.
3. This person rules a country, it's a title similar to that of a king.
4. This scientist searches for historical items (often buried under ground) and analyses them
5. A knight or another medieval soldier could wear this for protection in battles.
6. This is a place where somebody is buried, usually a rich or important person.