warm-up: Here are 5 arguments why teenagers shouldn't have part time jobs.

With your partner, say if you agree or disagree with them.

1. A job can take time away from studying, leading to lower grades and missed learning opportunities.
2. Balancing work and school can be exhausting, affecting both mental and physical health.
3. Less time for hobbies, sports, and socializing can slow personal development.
4. Teenagers may be exploited by employers - get unfair wages, tough tasks, or face poor working conditions.
5. Too much work can take away from friendships, family time, and fun teenage experiences.
